*Memorial Day, 4th of July, and Labor Day are the holidays charged weekend rates.

Other Trailer Parking Fee (applies to trailers not covered by camping, equestrian or boat launch fee): $3 per trailer in addition to daily parking fee.

The period covered by the daily parking fee is midnight to midnight. Park guests utilizing overnight parking when and where available (e.g., backpackers, overnight fishermen, etc.) will be required to pay the applicable daily parking fee for each calendar day that their vehicle is in the parking lot (partial days included).

Published Parking fees do not apply to those using the park to conduct business. Commercial use fees apply. Contact the specific park for details.

Parking fees are included in the rental fees for meeting facilities, up to the capacity of the facility and provided that this waiver of fee is included in the rental agreement for the facility.

Parking fees are included in all overnight fees up to the number of vehicles specified for the site rented.

Visitors with a valid day or overnight parking pass are allowed free parking at any other Virginia State Park during the permitted period.

Parking fees are waived on Jan. 1 and on National Public Lands Day and any other day specified by the Director. Parking fees for Veterans are waived on Nov. 11. Parking fee waivers do not apply to parks that charge admission unless specified.

For the purposes of parking fees, the following holidays are charged weekend rates where applicable: Memorial Day, Fourth of July, and Labor Day.

Parking fees are waived for:

- Vehicles displaying government-issued disabled plates or placards (fees for trailers or boat launching must be paid).
- Vehicles participating in an official activity of a school, home school or institution of higher learning. (If not in marked vehicles, coordinators should have a letter from the school verifying the official activity. For homeschool groups, proof of homeschool status such as current ID card from a state or national homeschool organization (HEAV, HSLDA, etc.) or a copy of the letter from the school district that acknowledges "Notice of Intent" to homeschool for that school year is required.
